

Kimberly Pawlawski

Senior Planner

EDUCATION

University of New Hampshire - Durham, New Hampshire
May 2003 - Master of Science in Resource Administration and Management.

Western Washington University - Bellingham, Washington
June 2001 - Bachelor of Arts in Geography, Specialization in Environmental and Resource Management

Olympic College - Bremerton, Washington
December 1998 - Associate of Arts and Sciences

EXPERIENCE

Nov. 2008 Jerome W. Morrisette & Associates Inc., P.S., Olympia, Washington.

Present Planning services; site visits/reviewing and processing client permit applications to comply with local and state regulations relating to land use and zoning. Feasibility studies. Project management and planning expertise.

Aug. 2007 Owner Cascadia Land Planning, Tumwater, Washington

Present Assisting members of the public to understand and comply with local and state regulations relating to land use and zoning. Assisting members of the public with development projects by offering feasibility, project management and planning expertise..

July 2004 Associate Planner - Thurston Co. Development Services Department, to Olympia, Washington

Aug. 2007 Assisting members of the public and County departments with issues relating to land use and zoning. Land use review to assure compliance with state, local and federal regulations. Researching and preparation of public presentations. Site visits for verification of local, state and federal environmental regulations. Conducting meetings with the public and county departments.

July 2003 Planner II, Kitsap County Department of Community Development, Port to Orchard, Washington

June 2004 Assisting/interpreting for landowners local and state regulations in relation to land use. Mapping protected critical areas (wetlands, geologic hazards, stream, and fish and wildlife habitats) in Skagit County. Processing of building permits, and site visits. Documenting public and private well data.

SUMMARY: Proficient in Wa. St. Dept. of Ecology wetland rating system. Thurston County Community Development/Development Review services experience. Skagit Co. Planning and Permit Center Internship experience. Personal commitment to environmental/resource conservation.